

Construction Superintendent

The Superintendent will be responsible for all job site activities performed by Armstrong Builder's employees, trade partners, vendors and suppliers. In addition, he or she will be responsible for monitoring schedules, job site documentation, safety, quality control, cost report review and takeoff/shop drawing review. Project locations are statewide.

Desired Skills & Experience:

- Journeyman level carpenter
- Experienced in high end residential single-family homes
- Excellent working knowledge of construction procedures, building systems and tools
- Ability to solve problems and work under pressure
- Excellent knowledge at reading plans, shop drawings and specifications
- Ability to effectively communicate with workers and trades
- Attention to detail and Quality
- Commitment to Safety