

Project Engineer

The Project Engineer assists the Project Superintendents and Project Managers in preparing reports, subcontracts, and overall support in every aspect of each project. Attention to detail and excellent communications skills are a must. Upcoming multi-unit residential project is located on the island of Maui.

Skills & Experience

- Engineering or Project Management degree preferred
- Excellent working knowledge of construction procedures, building systems and tools
- Ability to solve problems and work under pressure
- Knowledgeable at reading plans, shop drawings and specifications
- Excellent math and computer skills
- Ability to effectively communicate with workers and trades
- Knowledge of MS Office and Bluebeam software